

I do not wish the Indiana Law regarding Do Not Call to be changed to allow banks or anyone else I currently do business with to call me with new offers. I want my privacy. If they wish to contact me they can send a letter which I can either respond to or ignore. I don't interrupt their day with useless calls asking them to buy my products or services. I expect the same from them.